

WHITE HOUSE PARTY WILL OCCUPY WILSON BOX AT SERVICE GAME

Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Bones, and Possibly Graysons Will Attend.

LANSINGS TO OCCUPY BOX

Miss Margaret Wilson and Miss Helen Woodrow Bones expect to accompany the President and Mrs. Wilson to New York Saturday for the Army-Navy game. It is probable Dr. Cary Travers Grayson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Grayson will be in the party. Miss Margaret Wilson will sing at the community Thanksgiving celebration by Park View citizens, at 11 o'clock on the morning of November 30 in the new Park View School.

The President's cousin, John A. Wilson, of Franklin, Pa., who is spending a few days at the White House, will attend the game.

Secretary and Mrs. Lansing, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Warren and Miss Dulles will leave Friday at midnight and will return Monday.

Box Parties At Belasco.
The Russian Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff will entertain the Counselor of the British Embassy and Mrs. Colville Barclay this evening in their box for the performance of the Russian ballet at the Belasco Theater, and will have several other guests with them. Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh will have as guests in her box the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, Mrs. John W. Foster and Mrs. Stephen O. Osborn.

At the performance last evening Ambassador and Mme. Bakmeteff were accompanied by several of the secretaries of the embassy. The Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson were guests of Mrs. Walsh, who also had with her Mrs. Allan James and Mrs. McGill. Capt. Harry Lay and Mrs. Charles Hunsey, Lieutenant Colonel and Mrs. Thorpe entertained their guests at a supper at the Willard after the performance.

The American Ambassador to Germany, James W. Gerard, and Mrs. Gerard, who are coming to Washington for a short visit, are expected Monday.

Ambassador Willard Coming.
The American Ambassador to Spain, Joseph E. Willard, and Mrs. Willard, are coming to Washington and will arrive Sunday or Monday.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, who have a box for the Army-Navy game, will have as their guests a handsome attendance from Cleveland, among them Mr. and Mrs. John Stockwell, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stage, Jr.; Mr. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Osborn, Miss Myrtle Jones, and Mrs. George Sherwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Stockwell will return to Washington with Secretary and Mrs. Baker, and will be their guests for several days. Mrs. Baker will be at home informally every Wednesday afternoon.

Will Be Given Cup.
A large group of members of the Riding and Hunt Club started at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon on a ride to end at the clubhouse at 4:30 o'clock, when they will be entertained at a tea dance. Mrs. William Mitchell and Mrs. George Duncan will preside at the tea table.

During the afternoon George Oakley Totten, Jr., will be presented with a handsome loving cup by the club in recognition of his service as chairman of the entertainment committee last year. The presentation will come as a surprise.

Major William Mitchell is chairman of that committee this season, and is making arrangements for a so-called "circus" similar to the one which the club gave last season, on December 10.

Major and Mrs. Mitchell, who have been in New York for a fortnight, returned to Washington this morning. At the meeting of the Board of the Jackson Chapter, P. O. 1, held at the New Ebbitt on Monday evening, it was decided to postpone the dance which was to be given on December 4 at the Confederate Memorial Home. Miss Ella Louise Taggart is chairman of the committee in charge of the dance.

Entertains Mrs. Barbier.
Mrs. Ward Brown invited a few friends to tea informally yesterday afternoon to greet Mrs. Stewart W. Barbier, wife of Paymaster Barbier, U. S. N., stationed in Norfolk. Mrs. Barbier is visiting her mother, Mrs. Weston. Mrs. Barbier will be joined at the end of the week by Mr. Barbier, and they will leave Washington for New York to attend the Army and Navy football game Saturday. Mrs. Barbier will return to Washington Tuesday for another short visit with her mother.

Col. and Mrs. George Downey will attend the Army and Navy football game in New York Saturday. Some of the other prominent Washingtonians who will attend the game on Saturday are Miss Anne Hopkins, Miss Nellie Johnson, Miss Pauline Johnson, Miss Maxwell Church, Miss Charlotte Capers, Commander and Mrs. W. W. Galbraith, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harlow, Miss Harlow, and Miss Natalie Driggs. Miss Elizabeth Hamilton and Miss Marie Sims are planning to go to the game also. Miss Louise Hamilton will not make her debut until the first week in January, the exact day has not yet been decided upon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Mitchell will be hosts at dinner this evening.

DINNER IS GIVEN FOR AMBASSADOR GERARD

Frank A. Munsey Host to Eighty Guests in Honor of Diplomat at Ritz-Carlton.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—James W. Gerard, American ambassador to Germany, was the guest of honor at a dinner given last night by Frank A. Munsey in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. There were eighty guests.

The table was arranged around an Italian garden containing shrubs, yellow and white chrysanthemums, stork and decorative marbles. Fresh moss edged the tables, and in this, at regular intervals, were clusters of pansies growing. Smilax was festooned from the chandeliers and balconies.

The stage was draped with American flags. Mr. Munsey said that he wished to show Mr. Gerard his appreciation for splendid work done in Germany as a representative of this country.

Among the other guests were William A. Day, Judge Francis K. Pendleton, R. S. Lovett, Elbert H. Gary, Chauncey M. Depew, Clarence H. Mackay, James Speyer, Cornelius Vanderbilt, George J. Clark, Thomas W. Lamont, G. W. McGarrath, Charles Mather MacNeill, John D. Ryan, William T. Dewart, Robert H. Davis, and R. H. Titherington.

Ready for Alumnae Ball.
Preparations are nearing completion for the reception and alumnae ball to be given by the Washington entertainment committee of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae at the Willard Hotel Monday evening in connection with the visit of the delegates to the International Alumnae Convention to Washington.

The presidents of the alumnae at allied with the International Federation will receive at the ball at the Willard and at other functions. The presidents are Mrs. Darcy Magee, Mrs. G. W. Evans, Miss Alice M. Bond, Miss Mary Maloney, Miss Margaret Lucas, Miss Eugenia Lieutaud, Miss Mary Cavanaugh, Miss Hortense McGowan, Miss Eunice K. K. Williams, Miss Mary Harlow, Mrs. William Roach, Jr., Miss Dorothy Goucher, and Miss Josephine Wilmatt. Also receiving will be Mrs. Frank P. Scribner, chairman of the second biennial convention board of Baltimore; Miss Clara Cogan, president of the organization; Mrs. Sheer, vice president; the governor of each province, and each of the international officers.

Miss Aldis in New Home.
Miss Cornelia Aldis, who has been occupying Mrs. Henry C. Corbin's apartment in the Connecticut for several weeks, has taken possession of her newly completed residence, 2010 R street.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Bradley have sent out cards for a small dance, December 20, at 10 o'clock. The guests of honor will be Miss Lorraine Allen, of New York; Miss Pauline Dietson and Miss Anne Walker Meira, both of Philadelphia. The three girls will all be debutantes this winter.

Mrs. J. D. Safford and Miss Gladys Safford, of Springfield, Mass., have taken possession of the apartment in the Connecticut leased for the season.

Mrs. Paul Bartlett will entertain at dinner on the evening of December 21 in honor of three of the season's debutantes, Miss Minna Blair, Miss Margaret Fahnestock, and Miss Louise Hoar.

Mrs. Bartlett and her daughter, Miss Caroline Ogden Jones, who have recently returned to town from a short visit to New York, will go to Hot Springs tomorrow. Mr. Bartlett will join them later.

Studio Tea Well Attended.
An interesting festivity of yesterday afternoon was the tea given at the studios of the School of Fine and Applied Arts. Michel Jacobs and Felix Mahoney received the guests, and Mrs. Thomas C. Dawson poured tea. Mrs. Horace Macfarland served frappe, assisted by Miss Marian Weeks. Recently completed portraits of Speaker Champ Clark and Congressman Joseph G. Cannon were on view.

Among the guests were Mrs. Thomas W. Gregory, Miss Jane Gregory, Capt. and Mrs. William Strother Smith, Mrs. Archibald Gracie, Miss Gracie, Mrs. Gillett Hill, Miss Lemira Gillett Hill, Mrs. F. B. Moran, Mrs. Helmholtz, Miss Marjorie Helmholtz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dennett, Miss Dennett, Mrs. Charles W. Fairfax, Miss Helen Burch, Miss Virginia Weeks, James McCallum Miles, Miss Margaret Mercer Brooke, Miss Ethel May Hunter, Mr. Theodore Rockett, Mrs. Minnie Gorton, Miss Frances Hynes, Mrs. Arthur William Dunn, Miss Ruth K. Rice, and Mrs. Henry Parker Willis.

Mrs. William G. Young, who has been spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Charles J. Faulkner, at Marlborough, W. V., is now the guest of Dr. and Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood at their home in Nineteenth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Babcock are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son on November 17. The baby is to be christened William Homer Babcock.

MISS ELLEN JOHNSON GIVES LUNCH PARTY

Many Guests at Prettily Appointed Function—Hostess Goes to New York This Week

Miss Ellen Johnson entertained at a prettily appointed luncheon today. The guests included Miss Emily Kutz, Miss Minna Blair, the Misses Tuttle, Miss Margaret Fahnestock, Miss Anna Montgomery, Miss Sallie Fowler, Miss Bennett, Miss Roberta Wiley, Miss Reeves Harris, Miss Anne Carter, Miss Louise Crawford, Miss Louise Hamilton, Miss Anne Hopkins, and Miss Margaret Clark.

Miss Johnson will go to New York Friday to attend the Army and Navy football game.

Mrs. James W. Murphy is receiving informally this afternoon at her home in Lanier place.

Mrs. John William Thompson was the hostess at the first regular meeting of the Junior League of Washington yesterday afternoon. Miss Ruth Larner, the president of the league, was in the chair, and great interest was shown in the winter's program.

This year, with the help of a large committee of debutantes, the Junior League proposes to arrange a most unique evening carnival, an oriental ball, which will include novel feature dances, as well as general dancing throughout the evening. The entertainment will be held at Raucher's on January 23.

Launched at Shoreham.
Members of the President's Cabinet luncheon at the Shoreham yesterday were Secretary Lansing, Secretary Baker, Secretary Redfield, Secretary Daniels, and Secretary Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Wilson entertained a luncheon company in the rose room of the Shoreham yesterday.

Mrs. Marshall Field, who is now in New York, is expected at her Washington residence about December 1. Mrs. Field will not spend much time at her Chicago home this season, but will divide the winter between Washington and New York.

Mrs. Henry E. Jenkins, who will spend the winter in Washington with her parents, Medical Director and Mrs. James Duncan Gatewood, U. S. N., is now in Philadelphia with Dr. Jenkins, U. S. N., who is attached to the U. S. S. New Hampshire. Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins will go to New York to attend the Army-Navy game and later will make a short visit to Mrs. Jenkins' brother-in-law and sister, Capt. and Mrs. Earl North, at West Point. Mrs. Jenkins will return to Washington about December 1, when Dr. Jenkins' ship will sail for Haiti. Their small daughter, Miss Anne Wythe Jenkins, is with Dr. and Mrs. Gatewood.

Mrs. Ellsworth Berthoff and Miss Dorothy Berthoff are entertaining at a bridge party of thirty tables this afternoon at the Washington Club. The club room has been elaborately decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, and yellow chrysanthemums adorn the tea table. Additional guests have been invited for the later in the afternoon, when Mrs. Allan Lard, Mrs. Charles McCallister, and Mrs. Joseph Stoddard will preside at the table. Assisting in the dining room will be Miss Charlotte Capers, Miss Nina Cameron, Miss Lois Reeside, and the Misses Mills.

Miss Helen Braconiere Smith will be hostess at a bridge party on the afternoon of December 4 in compliment to Miss Dolores Crawford.

Mrs. George Deering Moves.
Mrs. George Deering has moved into the apartment at the St. Nicholas which she has taken for the winter. Mrs. William Barrett Ridgely is her guest there, and will be with her part of the winter. Miss Wharton, of Fort Lee, who has leased Mr. and Mrs. Ridgely's house, will arrive at Washington the first of next week.

Mrs. Victor Kaufmann will entertain at dinner on the evening of November 29, taking her guests later to the ball at the Playhouse for the benefit of the American Fund for French wounded and the British War Relief Fund.

WOODWARD BUILDING ROOMS ARE ROBBED

Quantity of Postage Stamps and $14 Are Taken.

Two rooms in the Woodward building were robbed of $14 and a quantity of postage stamps last night. Bratford W. Parker, manager, reported to the police today.

Central Office Detectives Baur and Kelly, investigating the theft of $500 worth of jewelry from the home of Mrs. Julia E. Buckingham, 1219 E street northeast, yesterday, learned that the thieves left other articles of considerable value, indicating that they were frightened off.

Condemnation Begins For Street Extension.
Condemnation proceedings for the extension of Seventeenth street from Kenyon to Irving streets northwest were instituted in the District Supreme Court today by the District.

The court is asked to empower the marshal to name a jury of five persons to assess damages owners of land taken may suffer by reason of the street improvements.

The petition was filed by Corporation Counsel Conrad Syme and Assistant Corporation Counsel James P. Smith.

Contract to Fuller Co. For Work at Arlington

A contract was awarded to the George A. Fuller Company today for masonry work costing $31,000 for the approaches to the $750,000 memorial amphitheater at Arlington Cemetery.

The contract was awarded at a meeting of the Arlington Memorial Commission in the office of Secretary of War Baker today.

NEW TREES WILL BE PLANTED IN PARKS

Work has been begun by Col. W. W. Harris, engineer officer in charge of public buildings and grounds, on the reforestation of Henry and Seaton parks in conformity with the McMillan plan for improvement of the Mall. Old trees will be replaced with younger trees, so planted as to conform to the general plan of treatment for this portion of Potomac Park.

Carefully Treat Children's Colds

Neglect of children's colds often lays the foundation of serious lung trouble. On the other hand, it is harmful to continually dose delicate little stomachs with internal medicines or to keep the children always indoors.

Plenty of fresh air in the bedroom and a good application of Vicks' VapoRub Salve over the throat and chest at the first sign of trouble, will keep the little chaps free from colds without injuring their digestions. 25c, 50c, or $1.00.

Factory to Home

The old adage, "Money earned," may be very well likened to a new plan we have arranged for your profit. Briefly, the plan is this: By giving us a month or longer in which to order the goods direct from the factory, we will allow you a discount of 10% from the marked price of the goods.

You may either pay cash or make a deposit and at stated intervals before the goods arrive pay the balance. We uncrate, set up, and deliver the goods at your door, guaranteeing perfect condition. If for any reason you wish to countermand you may do so, providing you notify us before the factory has made shipment. Your money will then be returned you with interest at the rate of 5% per annum.
